Searching and Fields

In this database you may choose the Terms and Connectors search method or the Natural Language search method.

With a Terms and Connectors search, you enter a query, which consists of key terms from your issue and connectors specifying the relationship between those terms. With Natural Language, you can retrieve documents by simply describing your issue in plain English.

For more information on using one of these search methods, see online Help.

Tip: Use a date restriction in your query to retrieve documents issued on a specific date or during a specific range of dates, e.g., da(aft mm/dd/yyyy & bef mm/dd/yyyy).

Tip: Documents retrieved after 5/31/03 will have the following indexing related fields:

General Index Fields:

IN for INDEX

All classification codes fields in a document.

COM for COMPANY

Company name and stock symbol

NS for NEWS-SUBJECT

News content of a document

IND for INDUSTRY

Industry classified by main revenue source

GEO for GEOGRAPHIC (REGION)

Specialized Index Fields (applied selectively to some publications):

OI for OTHER INDEXING

All other types of indexing provided with the document-this field gathers the miscellaneous indexing that was formerly split into following fields: NAMED-PERSON, ORGANIZATION, KEY-WORDS, NEWS-CATEGORY, MARKET-SECTOR, PRODUCT, SIC,

GOVERNMENT, STATISTICS, and STORY-ORIGIN.

To make searching easier and more consistent across documents:

- * Any index fields not included in new documents (i.e., NP for Named Person) will automatically be searched in the OI(OTHER INDEXING)field.
- * Searching the OI(OTHER INDEXING) field will search all old index fields (i.e., NP for Named Person) as well.
- * All general and specialized index fields will continue to be searchable in the IN(INDEX) field.

The abbreviations for the fields in this database are:

CI	CITATION	Unique references for citing specific documents.
PR	PRELIM	Publication, headings, subheadings, wordcount.
SO	SOURCE	Publisher and copyright.
HLD	HLEAD	Headline and lead paragraph of the article.
